“We can build, or architect, or code cyberspace to protect values that we believe are fundamental. Or we can build, or architect, or code cyberspace to allow those values to disappear. There is no middle ground. There is no choice that does not include some kind of building. Code is never found; it is only ever made, and only ever made by us.”

The wallet movement marks SpaceX's second transfer in three months after the aerospace company moved $153 million worth of Bitcoin in July, its first fund movement since 2022.

While Elon Musk has recently touted Bitcoin for its energy-based, inflation-proof economic model, the billionaire's relationship with the cryptocurrency industry has been complicated.

He said that we've previously had two cycles superimposed based upon the Bitcoin halving events every four years and the M2 global money supply.

That provides a notable edge when compared to the line on popular sportsbook DraftKings, which lists the Cowboys at +320 or around a 24% chance of knocking off the Eagles.

Cointelegraph has approached SpaceX for comments on the reason behind the Bitcoin transfer.
