The next crypto bear market could be particularly brutal and driven by a business cycle downturn that has never been seen in crypto before, according to analyst Willy Woo.

"Traditional sportsbooks focus on entertainment-driven, event-specific wagering with defined odds and consumer protections; meanwhile, prediction markets operate as decentralized forecasting tools where liquidity and information efficiency determine prices," he added. "If effectively regulated, both models could ultimately complement each other."

At the time of writing, Floki has jumped by nearly 27% on the day to a price of $0.000086 and an $829 million market cap, with some claiming that it's a sign that Musk is losing his pull. Others pushed back, stating that Floki is simply a larger asset than last time, thus making its price harder to move from a single social media post.
