With Bitcoin setting a then-record price of $67,000 in November 2021 before declining in the months thereafter, that should mean that the cycle is soon coming to an end. And some traders may be betting on that outcome.

“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we'll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

The US dollar is on track for its worst year since 1973, amid Bitcoin and gold hitting new all-time highs, according to investment analysts at The Kobeissi Letter.
