"We have been reviewing the entire portfolio from first principals to evaluate AI suitability and have identified Georgia as a strategic region for both potential conversion as well as expansion," wrote Scott Garrison, chief development officer and executive vice president at ClearSpark, adding:

The US Just Scored $14 Billion in Bitcoin—Will It Go to a Strategic Reserve?

Zeta Network Group's chief investment officer, Patrick Ngan, said in a statement shared with Decrypt that the balance-sheet allocation reinforces the group's "long-term financial position," adding that the move could enhance their financial resilience through “an instrument that combines Bitcoin’s scarcity with sustainable yield.”

Cross-border payment is one of the important application scenarios of blockchain technology. The traditional cross-border payment process is complex, involving multiple intermediaries, with long settlement time and high fees. In contrast, cross-border payments based on blockchain technology can realize direct peer-to-peer transactions, greatly simplifying the process, shortening settlement time, and reducing costs. Currently, several countries and financial institutions have begun to try using blockchain technology for cross-border payments. With the continuous maturity of technology and the improvement of regulatory frameworks, blockchain cross-border payments are expected to become the mainstream cross-border payment method in the future.

“This is a first step in bringing the spirit of Dogecoin directly into the fabric of the world’s game,” he added.

Ryan Sean Adams, another prominent crypto influencer and noted Ethereum backer, joked that Friday’s news did not break his faith in the decentralization-focused network—but that such a day could come soon.
