Nasdaq-listed Bitcoin mining company CleanSpark's shares soared over 13% on Monday, after the company announced a strategic expansion into artificial intelligence.

The next bear market “will be defined by another cycle people forget about,” said Woo on Monday.

It added that there was a “meaningful divergence” of opinion regarding where we are in the market cycle, with 45% of institutions believing markets are in the late stages of the bull run, compared to just 27% of non-institutions.

Around two-thirds of institutional investors have a positive outlook for Bitcoin going into 2026, according to Coinbase.

The Sun statement the Bubblemaps team was referring to appeared on X in Mandarin. In it, Sun said the wallet “only generally did a few exchange deposit tests, the amounts were very low, then did a distribution to one address.” He added that the tests “did not involve any buying or selling,” and that it would have been impossible for the token movements to have impacted the market.

“Fast forward a few years: Corporate chains will end up with the complex tech but without the added value for users, which is no central entity to control them. At that point, these chains will lose the focus from corporates.”
