But the second problem with the code-is-law idea is more damning. While the model of regulation suggested here so far has been of a reactive system that arises to fill the need for authority, some political scientists — realists — view it the other way.

Not everyone in crypto has popped open the champagne following Waller's announcement, however. Caitlin Long, founder of Custodia, a Wyoming-chartered crypto bank that has sought for years to earn a full-fledged master account, cautioned Tuesday that Waller specified the Fed's new program would apply to "legally eligible entities" if enacted—and that the devil is in those details.
