BTC's current price action closely resembles the March–April bottom range, when sharp intra-day wicks cleared out liquidity built over 30 days before a gradual recovery began. The pattern suggested that BTC could retest the $100,000 range without necessarily breaking the broader bullish structure, unless it falls decisively below that level.

The move resembles those made by Northern European countries like Norway or Sweden, Nic Puckrin, crypto analyst and co-founder of The Coin Bureau, told Decrypt. While those were not explicit bans, he said, "the removal of previous advantages essentially made mining unviable."
