Markets run 24/7, and a growing share of volume comes from high-leverage perpetual futures. That means even small order imbalances can trigger sharp, short-lived moves.

Coinbase says the high compliance costs pose "formidable barriers to entry for smaller financial service providers, including fintech startups," and are often passed on to customers through higher banking fees and denial of financial services, particularly affecting low-income customers.

Blockchains created and controlled by corporations will eventually die, as users won't want a chain controlled by a central entity, according to Eli Ben-Sasson, co-founder and CEO of blockchain company StarkWare.
