player 1PR ISeeYou.wav 1st Prize is the Science Fair's robot character of the Schoolhouse or Super Schoolhouse. Description[] 1st Prize is a poorly 3D-modeled CGI robot with a teal "gym cage" as a body that has oval wheels, round hands each sporting five stubby fingers, and a large crimson/red heart connected to his head by wires inside his torso.
His spherical head has a rectangular mouth and a cut out section revealing large googly eyes with extremely long pointy pupils. He could possibly be a creation of Baldi. It is possible his wires may be of very poor quality, as the store description of the Safety Scissors says that the scissors can only cut jump-ropes, bubble gum, and cheap wires.
Personality[] 1st Prize is a robot who loves to hug people, showing that he is compassionate towards others. 1st Prize thinks that everyone is his friend and is very loving considering he always asks to marry the player. He does not like it when he loses them. He also seems to be unaware of potential hazards; an example is 1st Prize pushing the player.
straight into Baldi, similar to Gotta Sweep. Artificial intelligence[] Main gameplay[] 1st Prize coming towards the player. 1st Prize coming towards the player. When 1st Prize notices the player, he'll turn around very slowly to face them and then accelerate forward, pushing the player.
down the hallway until they hit a wall or some other obstacle. 1st Prize has a similar function to Gotta Sweep, as they both push the player around the building. However, 1st Prize is always active and specifically targets the player, while Gotta Sweep is only active part of the time and follows his own path. Unlike Gotta Sweep, 1st Prize cannot push NPCs, so he cannot push them into the player and will instead go right through them. A window broken by 1st Prize collides with the surface while he is accelerating at fast speed, a Bang! sound will play, and it will attract Baldi and Dr. Reflex to the location where this sound is played, having a noise value of 64. If 1st Prize rushes toward any windows and collides with one, the window will break, and any character can pass through the smashed window. The sound of windows breaking has a very high noise for when a question is answered incorrectly, and the alarm of Johnny's Store in Endless Mode. Because of this, Baldi and Dr. Reflex will almost always head in the direction of the broken window, unless they are attracted by other sounds that have higher noise values or if they see the player. If Techno-Boots are active, 1st Prize just passes through the player, instead of pushing them. If the player uses Safety Scissors on 1st Prize to cut his wires, he will slow down and spin around for 30 seconds (15 seconds in Classic/Birthday Bash) before recovering. The time that 1st Prize is malfunctioning. It takes a total of 24 seconds for 1st Prize to make a full 360° turn, but while his wires are cut, he will spin faster than normal. Field trips[] 1st Prize and has to throw good fuel and avoid

1st Prize appearing with the original cast for a birthday surprise. In Baldi's Basics Birthday surprise. In Baldi's Basics Plus, this sound is also made when he collides with a wall at slow speed, and it does not attract Baldi. At the end of the game when the player reaches the last exit in the cafeteria, 1st Prize will show up with the other characters to shout out a birthday surprise for them. Like in Classic, the player's stamina will not be refilled while 1st Prize pushes them. In Baldi's Basics Classic Remastered, 1st Prize has the same appearance in Baldi's Basics Classic/Birthday Bash, but he can now break a window and properly make a Bang! sound when colliding with a wall at high speed, both of which alerting Baldi. In Baldi's Basics Full Game Early Demo, 1st Prize can be found in the faculty room where the Grappling Hook is located. Although he can still be seen in multiple angles, he can never move as he remains in a deactivated state. He is also completely stationary, unable to be pushed by a BSODA spray. Tips & Tricks[] Advantages[] 1st Prize can be used to push the player down hallways quickly, especially in long hallways, which is very helpful when trying to escape Baldi. 1st Prize can also disrupt Playtime's minigame by pushing the player while they are playing jump rope. 1st Prize can break the windows of the Principal's office, which allows an endless means of escaping when caught by Principal of the Thing. WD-NoSquee can be used on 1st Prize to prevent him from making a loud noise attracting Baldi to his location when he collides with a wall at a high speed. Neutral[] While searching for Mrs. Pomp's classroom but can also push them away from it. Techno-Boots can prevent 1st Prize is about to push the player into her classroom. 1st Prize can only push the player. Other characters cannot be pushed by him. 1st Prize turns around very slowly, which can either be good or bad: Good if 1st Prize is about to push the player. away from Baldi, especially when he becomes too fast to outrun, as Baldi can catch the player before 1st Prize finishes turning to push them. Using Safety Scissors on 1st Prize will make him unable to push them against Baldi. Disadvantages[] 1st Prize can also be a hindrance, as he can smash the player up against a wall for a few moments, blocking their sight and ability to move. 1st Prize will make a loud noise when he smashes the player against the wall, even louder when he breaks a window, attracting Baldi and Dr. Reflex to that source of noise. The former can be prevented by using WD-NoSquee on 1st Prize. If Baldi is already behind the player while 1st Prize is facing towards them, 1st Prize will push the player into Baldi, resulting in the player losing a power tube or game over. However, this can be prevented if either the Safety Scissors, Techno-Boots, Dangerous Teleporter, or An Apple for Baldi are used. During Dr. Reflex's minigame, 1st Prize pushing the player will trigger Dr. Reflex's rage mode as it counts as skipping the minigame. Again, this can be prevented with Techno-Boots. Trivia[] General[] 1st Prize is from Dr. Sbaitso but slowed down.[1] After accessing the voice parameters in Dr. Sbaitso with .param and pressing the Enter key, the parameters for 1st Prize's voice are: General: 0930 and type say (quote). Birthday Bash: 0951. For the quote from the game itself, type say suuuerpreeize!. Dr. Sbaitso is also used for the countdown voice during test procedure. Because of this, the countdown voice and 1st Prize's voice sound very similar. Although 1st Prize is a robot and is called an
"it" in his description, mystman12 refers to him as a male in some of his posts and livestreams. In Baldi's Valentine card, 1st Prize is the only schoolhouse character to debut in Baldi's Basics Classic but not appear in the initial early-access release of Baldi's Basics Plus. 1st Prize pushing the player will make all NPCs' sounds nearby be heavily distorted due to the Doppler effect. In Baldi's Basics Plus (prior to V0.4) and Classic Remastered, it only applies to Arts and Gotta Sweep. He is the only character from the main cast who was absent from most of the demos. While 1st Prize is in motion, his motoring sound will increase in pitch and it will stop until he hits a structure such as a wall or window, even if it does not play the banging-wall or window-crashing sounds. One of the Valentine's Day cards show 1st Prize is actually hidden in the TestRoom scene but is disabled. 1st Prize is the first character whose name does not start with a letter. Instead, it starts with a number. When 1st Prize is accelerating towards the player, his motor sound's pitch gets higher. 1st Prize was the one of the first characters to be implemented in an update. Baldi's Basics Plus/Classic Remastered/Birthday Bash[] When sped up, 1st Prize's sound when colliding with a wall sounds like hitting a table. Baldi's Basics Plus[] 1st Prize is one of the four characters to have a complete 360° view (meaning he can be seen in multiple angles). The second character is The Test, but his head does not count. The third character is the Student. If 1st Prize is moving towards the opposite direction of Cloudy Copter's wind, he will just flicker rapidly, unless he is trying to push the player. If the player hides behind 1st Prize in the corner of a hallway, 1st Prize will say his voice lines while wandering. It is unknown how 1st Prize recovers from being cut by the Safety Scissors. Unlike in Baldi's Basics Classic and Birthday Bash, 1st Prize's rare voice lines are not that rare in Baldi's Basics Plus. If 1st Prize is chasing the player and gets hit by Beans' gum, then he will be slowed down until he breaks free, going really fast and crashing into the player, with both going right into the wall right ahead of him, unless the player gets away from 1st Prize while he is stuck. In the early access trailer, 1st Prize of the game. Baldi's Basics Birthday Bash[] 1st Prize's sprite seems to be strangely smaller than usual when appearing in the cafeteria for the birthday surprise. He keeps on facing the front as his sprite also rotates with the camera in said scene rather than moving in different angles. According to Basically, Games!'s reply via Baldi's Basics Classic V1.4.3 changelog post, 1st Prize's loud thud has not been added in Baldi's Basics Classic, due to it being buggy in Birthday Bash and not working properly as it plays anytime when touching walls.[5] This sound was later reimplemented in Baldi's Basics Plus V0.3.5. 1st Prize does not attract Baldi when making his bang sound. If 1st Prize rams into a wall at high speed, causing a bang to occur, and 1st Prize says a quote at the same time, the quote caption will not appear. In mystman12's livestream of him playing the game, he noticed 1st Prize sometimes slid around while trying to turn a corner. He went on to note that the function is not intentional and it was planned to be fixed in Baldi's Basics Plus.[8] In V1.3, Principal of the Thing put the player in detention for being pushed by 1st Prize in a 360° view.1st Prize in a 360° view.1st Prize's hand used as a mouse cursor in Baldi's Basics Plus and its demos.1st Prize's hand and any character can pass through the smashed window. The sound of windows breaking has a very high noise for when a question is answered incorrectly, and the alarm of Johnny's Store in Endless Mode. Because of this, Baldi and Dr. Reflex will almost always head in the direction of the broken window, unless they are attracted by other sounds that have higher noise values or if they see the player. If Techno-Boots are active, 1st Prize to cut his wires, he will slow down and spin around for 30 seconds (15 seconds in Classic/Birthday Bash) before recovering. The time that 1st Prize is malfunctioning. It takes a total of 24 seconds for 1st Prize to make a full 360° turn, but while his wires are cut, he will spin faster than normal. Field trips[] 1st Prize at the campsite. 1st Prize and has to throw good fuel and avoid throwing the bad fuel into the fire. 1st Prize will also not push the Baldi's Basics Birthday Bash, 1st Prize does not appear to wear any birthday-related accessories unlike most of the original characters. This is the first time that he makes a loud thud when colliding with a wall at slow speed, and it does not attract Baldi. At the end of the game when the player reaches the last exit in the cafeteria, 1st Prize will show up with the other characters to shout out a birthday surprise for them. In Baldi's Basics Classic Remastered, 1st Prize has the same appearance in Baldi's Basics Classic/Birthday Bash, deactivated state. He is also completely stationary, unable to be pushed by a BSODA spray. Tips & Tricks[] Advantages[] 1st Prize can be used to push the player down hallways quickly, especially in long hallways, which is very helpful when trying to escape Baldi. 1st Prize can be used to push the player while they are playing jump rope. 1st Prize can break the windows of the Principal's office, which allows an endless means of escaping when caught by Principal of the Thing. WD-NoSquee can be used on 1st Prize to prevent him from making a loud noise attracting Baldi to his location when he collides with a wall at a high speed. Neutral[] While searching for Mrs.

can catch the player before 1st Prize finishes turning to push them. Using Safety Scissors on 1st Prize can also be a hindrance, as he can smash the player up against a wall for a few moments, blocking their sight and ability to move.
1st Prize will make a loud noise when he smashes the player against the wall, even louder when he breaks a window, attracting Baldi and Dr. Reflex to that source of noise. The former can be prevented by using WD-NoSquee on 1st Prize is facing towards them, 1st Prize will push the player into Baldi, resulting in the player losing a power tube or game over. However, this can be prevented if either the Safety Scissors, Techno-Boots, Dangerous Teleporter, or An Apple for Baldi are used. During Dr. Reflex's minigame, 1st Prize pushing the player will trigger Dr. Reflex's rage mode as it counts as skipping the minigame. Again, this can be prevented with Techno-Boots. Trivia[] General[] 1st Prize is the only character that talks in text-to-speech voice for 1st Prize is from Dr. Sbaitso but slowed down.[1] After accessing the voice are: General: 0930 and type say (quote). Birthday Bash: 0951. For the quote from the game itself, type say suuuerpreeize!. Dr. Sbaitso is also used for the countdown voice and 1st Prize is a robot and is called an "it" in his description, mystman12 refers to him as a male in some of his posts and livestreams. In Baldi's Valentine card, 1st Prize is the only schoolhouse character to debut in Baldi's Basics Plus. 1st Prize pushing the player will make all NPCs' sounds nearby be heavily distorted due to the Doppler effect. In Baldi's player, his motor sound's pitch gets higher. 1st Prize was the one of the first characters to be implemented in an update. Baldi's Basics Plus/Classic Remastered/Birthday Bash[] When sped up, 1st Prize is one of the four characters to have a complete 360° viewness.
is trying to push the player. If the player hides behind 1st Prize in the corner of a hallway, 1st Prize will say his voice lines while wandering. It is unknown how 1st Prize recovers from being cut by the Safety Scissors. Unlike in Baldi's Basics Plus. If 1st Prize is chasing the player and gets hit by Beans' gum, then he will be slowed down until he breaks free, going really fast and crashing into the player, with both going right into the wall right ahead of him, unless the player gets away from 1st Prize while he is stuck. In the early access trailer, 1st Prize is seen for the first time in Baldi's Basics Plus. However, fixed in V0.2.1. He is one of the five characters who can speak to not be voiced by mystman12, the others being Beans, Chalkles, Mrs. Pomp, and Johnny. 1st Prize crashing into a closed elevator. 1st Prize can crash into closed elevators. In V0.2.1, Safety Scissors did not affect him.[4] Prior to V0.3, 1st Prize's personal caption color was usually crimson His motor running sound's caption color was white before the V0.3 update. Prior to V0.3.5, 1st Prize could not break windows while traveling at high speed. Prior to V0.4, the Faculty Nametag did not affect certain characters, which included 1st Prize. Prior to V0.8, the caption when 1st Prize hitting a wall in fast speed was "Bang!". Baldi's Basics Classic/Birthday Bash[] From one end to the other, it takes 1st Prize exactly 8.12 seconds to go down the long hallway. The reason 1st Prize's wandering sounds are so rare is because of the fact 1st Prize only has a 1 in 9 chance (or an 11% chance) of saying an idle quote once he reaches his location without seeing the player, and the fact he moves very slowly while idle makes it even rarer. In 1st Prize's poster, the wall looks saturated. Baldi's Basics Classic[] 1st Prize is the only Schoolhouse character to not debut in V1.0 of the game. Baldi's Basics Birthday Bash[] 1st Prize is sprite seems to be strangely smaller than usual when appearing in the cafeteria for the birthday surprise. He keeps on facing the front as his sprite also rotates with the camera in said scene rather than moving in different angles. According to Basically, Games!'s reply via Baldi's Basics Classic V1.4.3 changelog post, 1st Prize's loud thud has not been added in Baldi's Basics Classic, due to it being buggy in Birthday Bash and not working properly as it plays anytime when touching walls.[5] This sound was later reimplemented in Baldi's Basics Plus[] 1st Prize can clip through furniture and the merry-go-round in the playground. Sometimes, 1st Prize will clip through the walls when pushing the player does not move after he player does not move after he player to the end of a hallway and the player moves, uses the Safety Scissors, or gets teleported, 1st Prize will resume normal behavior. When 1st Prize pushes the player while being caught in gum, 1st Prize is upside-down and viewed from the side, he appears to be moving backwards when in motion. If 1st Prize rams into a wall at high speed, causing a bang to occur, and 1st Prize says a quote at the same time, the quote caption will not appear. From V0.3.5 to V0.3.7, 1st Prize would make a slam noise when cutting his wires while moving at a high speed. Prior to V0.3.8, when Principal of the Thing gave the player detention or Arts and Crafters tried to teleport them while 1st Prize pushed the player, sometimes they would not teleport to the Principal's office or near the elevator, respectively. On rare occasions, the player to the outside happened much more common than previous versions. However, they were often teleported too far away from the building and this usually caused soft lock because it took too much time to get back to the school. mystman12 tried to fix this glitch, but it caused another glitch that Principal of the Thing's head got stuck in the ceiling.[6] mystman12 tried to fix this glitch was fixed eventually. This glitch was fixed in Baldi's Basics Classic Remastered first. From V0.4 to V0.4.2, while 1st Prize by pausing and unpausing the glayer, he did not face them. In V0.4.1 and V0.4.2, the player while Arts and Crafters is charging towards them, Arts and Crafters will fail to teleport the player; he will instead go right through them. In mystman12's livestream of him playing the game, he noticed 1st Prize sometimes slid around while trying to turn a corner. He went on to note that the function is not intentional and it was planned to be fixed in Baldi's Basics Plus.[8] In V1.3, Principal of the Thing put the player in detention for being pushed by 1st Prize. Prior to V1.4, the player could avoid 1st Prize if they were touching the side of a locker. Audio[] Gallery[] Sprites 1st Prize in a 360° view.1st Prize in a 360° view.1s must locate seven notebooks which each consists of math problems without being caught by Baldi, his students and other school staff members, while also avoiding various obstacles. The game percodies 1990s educational games by deconstructing its elements into metafictional horror. This is enhanced in updates, such as in the conclusion of a package version called Baldi's Basics Classic Remastered. A screenshot of Baldi's Basics Classic Remastered before the player collects any notebooks. Baldi, the game's titular antagonist, stands in the distance. Baldi's Basics in Education and Learning centers on the seven non-player characters and one player characters are two modes available, Story Mode and Endless Mode. In Story Mode, the player has to locate seven notebooks scattered around a schoolhouse without being caught by Baldi. The first notebook will be three simple arithmetic problems. However, each notebook second and onward typically contains only two of said simple arithmetic problems like the ones from the first notebook, excluding an unsolvable third one from the second one onwards. As the player continues to fail the impossible problems, Baldi moves faster and becomes harder to avoid. Additionally, the player continues to fail the impossible problems, Baldi moves faster and becomes harder to avoid. Plus, there is more content, including characters such as Cloudy Copter, [b] Chalkles, Beans, Mrs. Pomp, The Test, and Dr. Reflex, Johnny, other unnamed students, multiple procedurally generated floors, a Challenge Mode, Field Trips, and more. [2] A friend of the protagonist forgets seven notebooks at Baldi's schoolhouse but cannot retrieve them himself to avoid being late for "eating practice"; he asks the protagonist to fetch them. Once the player and upon the player and upon the player and upon the player and upon the player arrives, Baldi greets the player and upon the player and upon the player arrives, because if they are all of them correctly. Once the problems are all answered correctly, Baldi offers the protagonist a quarter, an item that grants them access to vending machines that distribute other items when they first get past the yellow swinging doors. He continues quizzing the player each time they first get past the yellow swinging doors. He continues quizzing the player fails a problem, and after the player is met with a glitched problem that has no correct answer, he will start to chase them. From then on, all notebooks while also avoiding other students and various obstacles. After collecting all seven notebooks, Baldi congratulates the player before shouting "Get out while you still can!" Baldi proceeds to keep chasing the player until they find the true exit and finally escape.[1] If the player gets all of the math problems wrong, a secret ending will be triggered in which they meet with an unnamed figure (often referred to as "NULL"), who states that the game is corrupted and must be destroyed. Baldi's Basics was created by Micah McGonigal, and it was initially made as an entry in the 2018 Meta-GameJam on Itch.io,[3][4] where it placed in second. In an interview with Game Developer, McGonigal cited the 1996 game Sonic's Schoolhouse as his main inspiration.[5] The game used the concept of using video games and other entertainment mediums of education for kids.[6] McGonigal launched a Kickstarter campaign, where he announced that a "full game," titled Baldi's Basics Plus, would be released in early 2020 as an early access title.[7] In late 2019, the original game was ported to iOS and Android under the title Baldi's Basics Classic.[8] This section needs expansion

Several YouTubers such as DanTDM, Markiplier, jacksepticeye, PewDiePie and CoryxKenshin have made videos on the game, which have gained popularity on YouTube. The lowlands of the island are divided between secondary forest and a patchwork of farmland and plantations (notably including shade-grown coffee), while the highlands are mainly scrubland, with a bamboo forest in the northwest coast of the main village and administrative center.
The island attracts significant ecotourism, thanks in part to its black lemurs. During the early 1800s, the region was heavily settled by Sakalava refugees and their slaves fleeing the hegemony of the Merina. France gained control of the island in 1840 and converted it to a logistic center for the import of indentured servants. Although Nosy Komba hosts a traditionally protected forest and an arboretum established in the colonial era, protection for the latter is essentially unenforced, and illegal logging continues. Only small pockets of old-growth forest remain, in remote areas. (Full article...) Recently featured: McDonnell Douglas Phantom in UK service Transportation during the 2024 Summer

The bridge carries two tracks of Amtrak's Northeast Corridor and one freight track between Astoria, Queens and Port Morris, Bronx, via Randalls and Wards Islands. Its main span is a 1,017-foot (310 m) steel through arch across Hell Gate, a strait of the East River that separates Wards Island from Queens. The main span, a two-hinged arch flanked by stone towers on either bank of Hell Gate, was the world's longest steel arch bridge until the Bayonne Bridge opened in 1931.
