Once again he was very professional and interested in how I was doing. He is a smart compassionate physician. I will continue to see him as my primary care doctor. Very willing to listen and try troubleshooting symptoms. I really enjoy my visits with him an after a few visits we finally figured out how to make my post nasal drip/acid reflux go away. It was not a cut and dry issue since I had gotten sick so many times leading up to working with him - including some really bad sinus infections. Very patient and has a good bedside/chairside manor. Courtesy to his patients, details to his physical and laboratory check up and following up. Office staffs are efficient and reliable. First class family practice in town. 5 stars recommended without hesitation . Trustworthy doctor and patient relationship I have been seeing Dr. Lin for 2 years and while going to the Dr. does not top my list of fun things to do, I enjoy talking with everyone in the office. The entire staff is pleasant and professional. Dr. Lin is one of the first physicians that actually listens and absolutely does not push his agenda. We have a conversation and make the best decisions based on mutual agreement. I highly recommend Dr. Lin and his office!
