The National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER) tracks four main indicators to identify recessions: employment, personal income, industrial production and retail sales.

This surge in activity also served as a real-world stress test for the Algorand blockchain. With tens of thousands of participants generating nearly 300,000 transactions, the network maintained its performance. Users experienced the platform's "low fees, instant transaction finality and zero transaction failures" firsthand.

But there's other big market players to consider, like Bitcoin treasury companies, according to Rick Maeda, a research analyst at Presto Research. He's especially interested in ones like Japan's Metaplanet, which has sworn off ever selling its BTC stash.

The current setup looks particularly favorable for Bitcoin, the firm stated, but it had a more cautious approach for positioning in altcoins.
