This surge in activity also served as a real-world stress test for the Algorand blockchain. With tens of thousands of participants generating nearly 300,000 transactions, the network maintained its performance. Users experienced the platform's "low fees, instant transaction finality and zero transaction failures" firsthand.

The company plans to use the net proceeds from the PIPE to implement a "yield-focused treasury strategy with significant direct and BNB equivalent exposure," according to CFA Chief Investment Officer Patrick Horsman.
