FalconX said Wednesday it agreed to acquire Swiss crypto exchange-traded product issuer 21Shares, bringing one of the sector's largest asset managers under its institutional brokerage platform.

The company reported net income of $505 million for the quarter ending Sept. 30, with adjusted earnings of $629 million, boosted by record results in its digital asset operations and investment gains. Galaxy closed the quarter with $3.2 billion in equity, including $1.9 billion in cash and stablecoins.

Shortly after the comment was made, however, another X user pressed Dorsey on his own financial commitment to the cause of protecting Bitcoin developers, questioning how much he had donated.
