Paradigm's Tempo blockchain is building a network with a curated set of validators, which will essentially be controlled by Stripe, marking a steep departure from Ethereum's decentralized, open-source ethos.

To that point, Dalio said that deregulation isn't a threat to governments' use of fiat currencies in stabilizing economies or facilitating international trade. It is rather unhealthy debt levels, he said, that are eroding the status of currencies like the greenback across several sovereigns.

"ETF flows will be decisive," Maartunn said. "As long as strong new inflows are lacking, I don't expect anything spectacular. Demand needs to pick up, otherwise there's a risk that new holders may add selling pressure—either if their average purchase price comes under strain, or simply because too little is happening."

Without real demand, any breakout attempt might lack the strength required to push ETH above key levels.
