digital assets for its products and services, from Xbox content to movie tickets.

Tempo is still in the works and will be a stablecoin and payments-focused L1 with Stripe essentially being in control of the network. Its ethos marks a stark contrast to Ethereum's decentralized and open-source nature, given that it will be a corporate-controlled chain.

"No one should go into a pissing match with Jack when it comes to funding open-source Bitcoin development," Wertheimer said.

The announcement followed the close of a $27 million private investment in public equity (PIPE) backed by institutional DeFi and TradFi investors.
