Miners typically rely on the price of Bitcoin to go up to cover costs but continued volatility for the asset has spurred, some large miners to branch into high-powered computing.

“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we'll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

Did you know? Etherscan's Gas Tracker gained popularity during the DeFi boom. By displaying real-time transaction fees, it helped users plan their swaps and NFT mints more strategically to avoid overpaying.
