"The conventional wisdom was that the SEC was only going to allow 2X leverage going forward, but these filings suggest that it may be willing to allow more volatile products to hit the market," Roy wrote. "If they launch, these would be extremely risky funds designed for the most aggressive short-term traders."

However, as the price failed to hold above $110,000 on Thursday, that short-term confidence faded. While the hourly premium has turned negative, the daily reading remained slightly positive, indicating that long-term US buying support hasn't fully disappeared, but it is currently under strain.
