The referral system also proved to be a growth driver, with 25,212 new users brought into the Algorand ecosystem through invitations from friends. By the end of the week, 4,215 participants had successfully completed all the required quests and claimed their non-fungible token (NFT) badges.

“These protections have already proven to be successful in addressing other types of non-consensual imagery, and we’ve now built the same capabilities for fake explicit images as well,” Google said. “These efforts are designed to give people added peace of mind, especially if they’re concerned about similar content about them popping up in the future.”

Ethereum’s bearish positioning is evident in Deribit’s data, which shows “a large increase in open interest of puts since the end of August,” Andrew Melville, head of research at crypto derivatives analytics platform Block Scholes, told Decrypt.

Without real demand, any breakout attempt might lack the strength required to push ETH above key levels.
