How to read: These patterns show two failed attempts to break resistance (top) or support (bottom). Confirmation occurs when the price crosses the neckline: bearish for double tops and bullish for double bottoms. Measure the height from the neckline to the peaks or troughs, then project it from the breakout point to estimate the move.

There was a spike in early 2020 due to the pandemic-induced lockdowns, but it was an extremely short recession. Currently, there is no imminent recession threat, though elevated risk remains.

But not this time. Analysts at the British multinational bank Standard Chartered, who have long been bullish on Bitcoin, don't think it stops here either. Geoff Kendrick, the bank's global head of digital assets, said in an investor note published Friday that he expects the price of Bitcoin to reach at least $135,000 in the near term and top $200,000 before the end of the year.
