Assets associated with the infamous Libra token—launched in February, and promoted by Argentine President Javier Milei—were unfrozen by a Manhattan federal judge on Tuesday. The judge said that she no longer believes that the defendants would run off with the cash, after the pair had been compliant with court proceedings. It comes after the same U.S. district judge, Jennifer L. Rochon, froze $57.6 million worth of USDC found in June as part of a case in which the plaintiffs are seeking over

But the second problem with the code-is-law idea is more damning. While the model of regulation suggested here so far has been of a reactive system that arises to fill the need for authority, some political scientists — realists — view it the other way.

ReversingLabs says the malicious packages attempted to overwrite legitimate commands in order to extract sensitive database files.
