“I do see the dollar and the other reserve currency governments' bad debt situations as threatening to their appeals as reserve currencies and storeholds of wealth, which is what has been contributing to the rises in gold and cryptocurrency prices,” he said.

At the time of writing, Floki has jumped by nearly 27% on the day to a price of $0.000086 and an $829 million market cap, with some claiming that it's a sign that Musk is losing his pull. Others pushed back, stating that Floki is simply a larger asset than last time, thus making its price harder to move from a single social media post.
