SearchGPT is the latest development in what appears to be a new era in web search, which The Verge's Nilay Patel has termed "Google Zero." This approach prioritizes practicality over variety: instead of presenting a list with different sources and approaches to a specific query, which encourages users to do their own research, AI-powered search engines opt for a more direct tactic, providing concise, summarized information responding exactly to what users are looking for.

In a major show of force for Stripe's upstart blockchain project Tempo, the company has reportedly raised $500 million—and nabbed one of the Ethereum network's most prominent core developers, as well.

The first incident occurred on July 29, during a game between the Atlanta Dream and Golden State Valkyries, when a bright green dildo bearing the project's hashtag was thrown onto the court. Several similar disruptions followed and two arrests have been made.

The technique targets a single qubit, the basic unit of information storage in quantum computing, with a precise signal, causing it to react. The process is then reversed, allowing the researchers to measure the “echo” or signal that bounces back, Google said.

A pseudonymous group behind a meme coin called Green Dildo Coin has claimed responsibility for a string of disruptive incidents at WNBA games, where sex toys have been thrown onto the court.

"We are also excited to add Trump Coin to our cryptocurrency plan," he added, "as we believe the coin's value should track the success of the Trump presidency, which so far has been impressive."
