The letters, known as “nudge letters,” are designed to prompt investors to voluntarily correct their tax filings before formal investigations are launched.

The primary struggle for a crypto investor is not a lack of information but a relentless deluge of it. News websites, social media feeds and onchain data streams constantly churn with updates that can be overwhelming. XAI’s Grok 4 aims to change that. It pulls live data straight from X, pairs it with real-time analysis and filters signals from noise. For a market that is heavily influenced by narrative momentum and community chatter, this is indeed a notable capability.

But not this time. Analysts at the British multinational bank Standard Chartered, who have long been bullish on Bitcoin, don't think it stops here either. Geoff Kendrick, the bank's global head of digital assets, said in an investor note published Friday that he expects the price of Bitcoin to reach at least $135,000 in the near term and top $200,000 before the end of the year.

Recently, though, Bitcoin ETFs have been rebounding after lagging compared to Etheruem ETFs. BTC funds have just recorded two consecutive days of inflows exceeding $300 million, totaling $633.3 million across both sessions—the strongest two-day performance since early August.

The meme coin group has been gloating online about the attention their marketing gimmicks have been receiving, encouraging each other to share and repost any mention of their stunts in the hopes of getting more people to buy their token.

The referral system also proved to be a growth driver, with 25,212 new users brought into the Algorand ecosystem through invitations from friends. By the end of the week, 4,215 participants had successfully completed all the required quests and claimed their non-fungible token (NFT) badges.
