to help secure and validate transactions on proof-of-stake (PoS) blockchains. In return, participants earn rewards — similar in concept to earning interest — for supporting network operations.

continues to trade below the crucial $4,000 threshold, struggling to establish bullish directional momentum following last Friday's flash crash. The altcoin consolidated between its 50-, 100- and 200-day exponential moving averages (EMAs), a technical zone that highlighted the ongoing tug-of-war between short-term and long-term market trends.

As lawmakers propose broader financial regulation, industry groups are increasing their policy engagement.

A tokenized asset, like a stock, bond, or even property, can be held and traded on a blockchain. It can also be fractionalized, meaning that someone could own a tiny sliver of an asset that they couldn't otherwise afford.
