The character, developed by comedian and technologist Eline Van der Velden—who spun off Xicoia from her production company Particle6—was unveiled last week at the Zurich Summit during the Zurich Film Festival in Switzerland, and immediately drew online attention. Van der Velden said multiple talent agents are already interested in signing the artificial personality.

"We have seen that a number of companies have had success with a crypto strategy," the spokesperson said. "A number of our friends and supporters felt we should engage in that area as well. The board decided to start a conservative approach on this and test waters by buying some Bitcoin and Trump coin."

The earlier plan positioned the token as significantly underpriced relative to its fundamentals.

Research firm 10x Research also reported on Saturday that major DATs such as Metaplanet and Strategy were trading near or below their NAVs.

That said, Grok 4 is an insights tool, not a safety net. Recent incidents around moderation and response behavior mean you must validate outputs with independent sources. That's why you should ideally treat Grok 4 as a rapid investigator, not as the final arbiter.

Haines tapped Sullivan Slentz, who helped create a commercial for a DeFi project that Haines appeared in, as the show's director. Its cast is still being decided, but the two are hopeful that their pilot episode will be finished by February.
