As Cointelegraph reported, crypto investment products showed strong resilience during last week’s market turbulence, recording $3.17 billion in inflows despite a major flash crash triggered by renewed US-China tariff tensions, according to CoinShares.

Still, compared to past cycles, BTC's price hasn't soared as much post its quadrennial halving: as the market cap of the biggest coin grows, it takes far more cash to move its price, and the volatility of the cryptocurrency is down since the 2024 approval of U.S. Bitcoin ETFs.

Decentralized applications (DApps) are changing the way we interact with the Internet. Unlike traditional applications, DApps run on blockchain networks, do not rely on centralized servers, and feature decentralization, openness, and immutability. Currently, DApps are mainly concentrated in games, finance, social media, and other fields, providing users with brand new experiences. Although the development of DApps still faces challenges such as user experience, performance, and scalability, with the continuous advancement of technology, we believe that DApps will become an important part of the future Internet.

"Built on institutional-grade infrastructure, [the product] enables UK investors to gain exposure to Bitcoin with the confidence of robust custody and regulatory oversight," Sloan added.

BitMine is the world’s largest Ether treasury company with a stash of more than 3 million ETH, or 2.5% of the entire supply, worth $11.7 billion. It is already halfway toward its target of 5% and has only started accumulating the asset in early July, when ETH was hovering around the $2,500 level.

"In the long term, partnerships between licensed prediction platforms and established sportsbooks are more likely than head-to-head competition, especially as the industry converges around transparency, liquidity efficiency, and on-chain data integrity," Ivan Muller, CMO at crypto-based gaming and sports betting platform, Dexsport.io, told Decrypt.
