Ripple's acquisitions and partnerships are part of the company's broader effort to challenge the SWIFT interbank messaging system, the standard protocol used by the world's financial institutions to shift money around the world.

may be down 4.3% in October so far, but optimism around the month's historically bullish trend remains intact. Since 2019, Bitcoin's average October gain has been near 20%, with a median return of about 15%. While this year's performance currently lags, market participants are looking to macroeconomic policy shifts for potential fuel.
