Analysts remain wary of digital assets' future price path as markets reckon with a re-escalation of the Trump administration's global trade war, inflation and economic worries, and other macroeconomic uncertainties. "It's likely too early to tell if this is the bottom though as wider markets are choppy, particularly gold," James Butterfill, global head of research at crypto asset manager CoinShares told Decrypt.

At 77, BNB's RSI is one strong week from breaching 80, where corrections typically trigger. The parabolic structure itself is inherently fragile—if BNB breaks below its rising support line even briefly, it could cascade into a 20-30% correction as stop-losses trigger and profit-takers flood exits.

Ether derivatives data showed moderate unease among bullish traders, but whale positioning suggested most were not expecting a deeper decline. The key question was whether the $3,700 support would hold as macroeconomic risks intensify.
