The Crypto Fear & Greed Index, which measures overall market sentiment, fell to a “Fear” level of 24 on Thursday, representing a decline of 47 points from Friday’s “Greed” reading of 71.

The company’s stock tokens mirror the prices of publicly traded US securities but don’t represent direct ownership of the underlying shares. Instead, they are structured as blockchain-based derivatives regulated under MiFID II (Markets in Financial Instruments Directive II), according to the company.

Blockchain technology is rapidly developing worldwide, becoming an important driving force for digital transformation. As a distributed ledger technology, blockchain ensures data security and immutability through decentralized means. In the financial sector, blockchain technology has begun to transform traditional payment, clearing, and settlement processes, improving efficiency and reducing costs. At the same time, blockchain has shown tremendous application potential in various fields such as supply chain management, healthcare, and public services. With the continuous maturity of technology, we have reason to believe that blockchain will lay a solid foundation for the future digital economy.
