Some companies, such as BitMine, SharpLink Gaming and VivoPower, include crypto in their treasury portfolios for strategic purposes, inflation hedging or to get further involved in the cryptocurrency market.

But October—dubbed Uptober by traders—has started with a bang. Nine out of the past 10 years have been strong for the cryptocurrency.

The exchange responded to the criticisms by launching a $400 million relief program for eligible traders and institutions affected, as well as a $45 million BNB airdrop for memecoin traders who suffered losses during the crash.

In an interview with the Financial Times, the Bridgewater Associates founder linked a rise in the price of digital assets and gold to America's overwhelming debt burden, which isn't improving, according to a transcript of the conversation that he posted to X on Wednesday.

This cycle has also been complicated by the introduction of trade tariffs, which have already trimmed growth in the first half of 2025 and are expected to continue dragging on GDP growth through the first half of 2026.

Yarlagadda noted that crypto exchange-traded products are expected to "open new channels for investor participation through regulated, familiar structures," citing his company's work in building an "institutional backbone" for trading, derivatives, and credit.
