The crypto market faced its biggest leveraged wipeout in history last weekend, but the turbulence won't leave a lasting mark, according to Bitwise chief investment officer Matt Houghan.

While AI tools can help spot market trend shifts for day traders via social media and technical signals, traders still can't rely on them for autonomous trading.

And last month, only one in four of the 1,900 investors polled by Binance Australia estimated that Bitcoin will top $150,000 in the next six months.

The sector continues to grow, with users of prediction market Myriad (launched by Decrypt's parent company Dastan) placing a 55% chance on the market cap of all stablecoins crossing $360 billion before February 2026.

How to read: A decline in volume on the right shoulder signals weakening momentum. A price break below the neckline confirms a bearish reversal, while a break above it confirms a bullish inverse. Measure the distance from the head to the neckline, then project that distance from the breakout point to estimate the target move.
