However, the catastrophic losses of models like Gemini highlight the significant risks that make financial institutions wary. A primary concern is the “black box” nature of these systems, where the reasoning behind a trade is often opaque and unexplainable. This lack of transparency is a major hurdle for regulatory compliance and risk management, as establishing trust in a model's decisions is a critical and ongoing effort.

It added that there was a “meaningful divergence” of opinion regarding where we are in the market cycle, with 45% of institutions believing markets are in the late stages of the bull run, compared to just 27% of non-institutions.
