Derivatives traders are expecting a slightly more optimistic outlook for Bitcoin in September despite macroeconomic uncertainty and seasonality odds, with experts indicating muted downside volatility.

"We are also excited to add Trump Coin to our cryptocurrency plan," he added, "as we believe the coin's value should track the success of the Trump presidency, which so far has been impressive."

This is the latest in a long line of campaigns specifically targeting crypto developers.

The guild also warned producers that they “may not use synthetic performers without complying with our contractual obligations, which require notice and bargaining whenever a synthetic performer is going to be used.”
