On Oct. 10, 2024, Kobayashi announced that most repayments to verified creditors had been completed, though many were still pending due to incomplete procedures or processing issues.

He also thinks APIs face challenges such as a lack of standardization and regulatory fragmentation, which a guidance “outlining acceptable use cases” would solve by clearly showing “data privacy requirements and standards for interoperability — allowing firms to confidently adopt and integrate APIs into their programs.”

He also cast doubt on the US government's plan to use stablecoins to protect US dollar hegemony, arguing that stablecoins are only a temporary, short-term fix that does not address the core issue, which is currency debasement.

"We have seen that a number of companies have had success with a crypto strategy," the spokesperson said. "A number of our friends and supporters felt we should engage in that area as well. The board decided to start a conservative approach on this and test waters by buying some Bitcoin and Trump coin."

"I believe that the real world moment is now, and I want to make sure we do not miss this window to touch normal people's lives everywhere in the world," Feist said, arguing his decision to join Tempo will enable him to more effectively bring crypto payments to the masses.
