Joachim Nagel, president of Germany's Bundesbank and a member of the ECB's governing council, warned of possible "spillovers" from the private credit market, calling it a "regulatory risk." Nagel shared his concerns with CNBC as the global private credit market surpassed $1 trillion, adding that "we as regulators, we have to take a close look at it."

The earlier plan positioned the token as significantly underpriced relative to its fundamentals.

That said, Miller cautioned against making generalizations. "It's always a bit dangerous to try to extrapolate things like user intentions from the cold data of average wallet analysis," he said.

The pivot comes a day after CEA Industries Inc., a Canadian vape company, announced it had acquired 500,000 BNB tokens at an average price about $870 per token.

At the network level, institutional staking could enhance security and protocol stability. However, it may spark concerns about centralization if large funds dominate validator roles. This could affect yields and governance balance. Grayscale's staking-enabled ETPs will shape upcoming funds, influencing standards for transparency, risk disclosures, taxation and investor safeguards.

Looking further out, Dawson observed a put volume clustering around the $4,000 and $5,000 strikes for the Sept. 26 expiry, indicating an expectation for a more moderate correction by month's end.
