That state of affairs could now change imminently. Waller's plan would allow U.S. institutions focused on "payments innovation"—aka, crypto and other emerging financial technologies—to gain their own access to the Fed's services, as opposed to depending on third-party, master account-holding banks.

The referral system also proved to be a growth driver, with 25,212 new users brought into the Algorand ecosystem through invitations from friends. By the end of the week, 4,215 participants had successfully completed all the required quests and claimed their non-fungible token (NFT) badges.
