As the first successful application of blockchain technology, cryptocurrencies have gone through more than ten years of development. From the initial Bitcoin to the current wide variety of tokens, the cryptocurrency market has experienced multiple booms and busts. Nevertheless, the ideas of decentralization and disintermediation represented by cryptocurrencies are profoundly influencing the traditional financial system. More and more institutional investors are beginning to pay attention to and participate in the cryptocurrency market, and governments of various countries are also actively exploring regulatory frameworks for cryptocurrencies to promote their healthy development.

Bitcoin has broken above $125,000 for the first time in its 17-year history.

To lead the initiative, the company appointed Jeffrey Thomas as senior vice president of AI data centers, CleanSpark announced on Monday.

California state pension fund CalPERS recorded mixed reactions from board candidates on crypto investments during Wednesday's forum, despite the system holding shares in Bitcoin treasury company Strategy, previously known as MicroStrategy.

The executive did emphasize, though, her confidence that Custodia has already been deemed a “legally eligible entity” by the Fed.
