They would not provide certain benefits, though, including payments of interest on account balances or overdraft privileges. They might also impose caps on balances, in a bid to control for "various risks to the Federal Reserve and the payment system."

Stock correlation hints at Bitcoin's next move

Japan's new Prime Minister, Sanae Takaichi, announced a package of economic stimulus measures on Tuesday to ease the impact of inflation on households. The move, some crypto observers said, may drive more capital into Bitcoin.

Zeta Network Group's chief investment officer, Patrick Ngan, said in a statement shared with Decrypt that the balance-sheet allocation reinforces the group's "long-term financial position," adding that the move could enhance their financial resilience through "an instrument that combines Bitcoin's scarcity with sustainable yield."
