"We have seen that a number of companies have had success with a crypto strategy," the spokesperson said. "A number of our friends and supporters felt we should engage in that area as well. The board decided to start a conservative approach on this and test waters by buying some Bitcoin and Trump coin."

At the time of writing, Floki has jumped by nearly 27% on the day to a price of $0.000086 and an $829 million market cap, with some claiming that it's a sign that Musk is losing his pull. Others pushed back, stating that Floki is simply a larger asset than last time, thus making its price harder to move from a single social media post.
