BNB Chain sees record user activity, transactions up 151% in 30 days

So far in 2025, paying for coffee with crypto isn't some sci-fi fantasy anymore. Plenty of chains and indie spots have already made it part of the daily grind. At Starbucks, for example, you can grab a Bitrefill gift card and cover your caramel macchiato with Ether or Bitcoin.

High-end brands are also joining in: Gucci and Ralph Lauren have continued to expand their crypto payment options at select flagship stores, particularly for their more exclusive collections.

On Monday, Musk shared a post saying that Floki, his pet Shiba Inu dog, was “back on the job” as the CEO of X. The post was accompanied by an AI-generated video of his dog sitting at a desk, donning a tie and glasses, saying “Numbers, numbers, numbers, numbers? Is this working? Yay.”

The exponential moving averages, or EMAs, paint an even prettier picture. These weighted averages give more importance to recent price action, helping identify dynamic support and resistance. For BNB, the setup is textbook: the 50-day EMA rises beneath current price around $1,050-$1,070, providing a cushion for pullbacks. The 200-day EMA sits lower still, confirming the longer-term uptrend.
