Prosecutors also revealed that the U.S. government has seized more than $14 billion worth of BTC from Prince Holding, and is currently pursuing the largest forfeiture action in DOJ history.

The company's board of directors approved the plan, which will see it acquire up to $5 million of the two assets in total over the next year, according to a company announcement on Thursday.

“What that means is that when you remove a result from search under our policies, in addition, what we'll do is on any query that includes your name—or would be likely to surface that page from search—all explicit results will be filtered,” the spokesperson said. “So not all explicit results will be removed, but all explicit results will be filtered on those searches, which prevents them from appearing on searches where it would be likely to show up.”

Google’s experiment is verifiable, meaning that the same results can be obtained by running the experiment on any quantum computer system with the same technical specifications as the one the researchers used.

“The plan is really to properly and deeply integrate the LimeWire token into what we’re doing with Fyre,” Zehetmayr told Decrypt. “We definitely want to do some kind of redemption for old holders of tickets as well. I think that’s something where you could involve crypto or even NFTs.”

Part of this growth is being driven by improvements in underlying blockchain infrastructure, with some networks now processing over 3,400 transactions per second, a more than 100-fold increase in throughput over the past five years.
