In general, both retail and institutional investors continue to focus on buying and holding tokens for price gains rather than staking them. Operating validator nodes requires substantial capital, technical know-how and uninterrupted uptime. It also exposes participants to risks such as slashing penalties and custody challenges. Additionally, in many jurisdictions, the regulatory treatment of staking rewards remains unclear.

With Bitcoin setting a then-record price of $67,000 in November 2021 before declining in the months thereafter, that should mean that the cycle is soon coming to an end. And some traders may be betting on that outcome.

This article explores where BTC, ETH and XRP are used, from simple everyday purchases to large-scale airline integrations.

The acquisition is made in partnership with Brag House Holdings, House of Doge's publicly traded merger partner that will help the firm soon go public via a reverse merger.
