The product features institutional-grade security protocols, with Coinbase transferring Bitcoin from trading wallets into segregated, offline cold storage by day's end.

Both packages have now been removed and cannot be downloaded, meaning they no longer pose a risk to developers.

According to data from Nansen, the price of ETH was $3,857 at the time of publication, having surged by more than 9% in the previous seven days.

Decentralized applications (DApps) are changing the way we interact with the Internet. Unlike traditional applications, DApps run on blockchain networks, do not rely on centralized servers, and feature decentralization, openness, and immutability. Currently, DApps are mainly concentrated in games, finance, social media, and other fields, providing users with brand new experiences. Although the development of DApps still faces challenges such as user experience, performance, and scalability, with the continuous advancement of technology, we believe that DApps will become an important part of the future Internet.
