“In years past, stablecoins were used mostly to settle speculative crypto trades; as of the last couple years, they have become the fastest, cheapest, and most global way to send a dollar,” the report said.

Admit it or not, software is deployed by developers and used by communities for certain purposes. And when hackers at cross purposes exploit the software to take things from those communities, some of the victims will appeal to the government for help. And sometimes those governments will respond by sending men with guns to restrain the hackers and imprison them.

He believes this outlook bodes well for a sustained rally through the year's end, noting that "historically, October through December are the most active and bullish months for Bitcoin."

"Our investment in U.S. Triestina 1918 is about much more than football. It's about connecting Dogecoin's global community with one of Europe's most storied clubs and proving that digital assets can drive real-world value, culture, and passion," said House of Doge CEO Marco Margiotta in a statement.

"Bitcoin briefly tested record highs before retreating as traders took profits," Joe DiPasquale, CEO of crypto asset manager BitBull Capital, told Decrypt. "The broader setup remains bullish, with a prolonged government shutdown likely to continue driving interest in hard assets and supporting demand for Bitcoin as an alternative store of value."

Pro-crypto lawmakers have demanded immediate action to prevent large banks from blocking Americans' access to digital asset platforms and other financial services.
