Blockchain finance is reshaping the traditional financial ecosystem. Through blockchain technology, financial services can achieve decentralization and disintermediation, reduce transaction costs, and improve efficiency. Currently, the main applications of blockchain finance include cross-border payments, digital currencies, decentralized exchanges (DEXs), lending platforms, etc. Compared with traditional finance, blockchain finance has higher transparency and lower entry barriers, providing new possibilities for the development of inclusive finance. However, the development of blockchain finance also faces challenges such as regulatory uncertainty and technical risks, requiring a balance between innovation and regulation.

After the acquisition closes, 21Shares will continue operating independently under CEO Russell Barlow. FalconX said the move aligns with its broader 2025 expansion push in trading, asset management, and market infrastructure, following earlier deals for Arbelos Markets and Monarq Asset Management.

The November election will determine whether CalPERS continues its current approach of indirect crypto exposure or potentially opens discussions about direct digital asset investment.

“With NAVs now having fully round-tripped, retail investors have lost billions — and many likely lack the conviction to keep adding to their positions.”
