High-end brands are also joining in: Gucci and Ralph Lauren have continued to expand their crypto payment options at select flagship stores, particularly for their more exclusive collections.

A combination of favorable macroeconomic conditions and surging institutional interest in the digital asset has served Bitcoin well throughout the year, and several analysts recently told Decrypt they expect the appetite for BTC to continue to grow, despite signs of potential exhaustion in the crypto market earlier this week.

Ether derivatives data showed moderate unease among bullish traders, but whale positioning suggested most were not expecting a deeper decline. The key question was whether the $3,700 support would hold as macroeconomic risks intensify.

The flash crash sent open interest in perpetual futures plummeting from $26 billion to under $14 billion, while decentralized exchange (DEX) trading volume surged past $177 billion, and crypto lending fees hit an all-time high of $20 million.
