Lately, however, that decision has moved from tactical to strategic. Beyond developers deciding between ecosystems, big companies are now building their blockchains from scratch. And when the companies doing it are Stripe, Coinbase or other giants with deep regulatory and distribution advantages, the L1 stops being a neutral playing field and starts looking like a moat.

SolvBTC keeps every token fully backed by Bitcoin, stored with regulated custodians, and verified on-chain for transparency. Its use by a Nasdaq-listed company is a gesture of “trust from traditional finance,” Chow added.

Ethereum co-founder and Consensys founder Joseph Lubin highlighted the importance of venture capital (VC) funding for the development of the world's largest smart contract network, despite industry concerns over the influence of investment funds on Ethereum.

In other words, the slight price bump is not being driven by aggressive buying. Instead, the move coincides with more passive buying.

Analysts remain wary of digital assets' future price path as markets reckon with a re-escalation of the Trump administration's global trade war, inflation and economic worries, and other macroeconomic uncertainties. "It's likely too early to tell if this is the bottom though as wider markets are choppy, particularly gold," James Butterfill, global head of research at crypto asset manager CoinShares told Decrypt.

It also means there is more mining activity on the network as miners expand their operations and use more machines—and power—to continue minting coins.
