Comprehensive Guide to what's binance

In its latest State of Crypto report, a16z highlighted the growing involvement of traditional financial giants such as BlackRock, Visa, Fidelity and JPMorgan Chase, alongside fintech companies like Stripe, PayPal and Robinhood, all of which are expanding their presence in the digital asset space.

The price of Bitcoin soared to a new record high during Asia trading hours on nearly $50 billion in trading volume over the last 24 hours, per data from CoinGecko. As bullish traders piled in pushing the price upward, almost $100 million in short positions were liquidated in just one hour, according to CoinGlass. More than $200 million in BTC shorts were turned into forced buyers in the last 24 hours.

Ay explained that current funding levels between 0.01%–0.03% indicated a healthy mid-phase uptrend, far below overheated bull-phase levels of 0.1%–0.2% seen in 2021. The analyst added that moderate leverage and improving spot demand could set the stage for a renewed rally toward $4,500–$5,000, while any sudden surge in funding above 0.05% could mark overcrowded longs and trigger short-term pullbacks.

Its daily relative strength index (RSI) readings have been persistently above 70 in the past month, indicating that the asset is overbought and risks profit-taking.

Beyond stablecoins, a16z noted growing institutional participation across the crypto sector, citing the rise of spot exchange-traded funds (ETFs) and initiatives from major institutions, including Citigroup, Fidelity, JPMorgan and Morgan Stanley, to offer or expand crypto-related services.
