From Times Square in New York to Portland and Los Angeles, crowds chanted “Resist Fascism” and “We the People Rule,” according to a report from Politico.

"We have seen that a number of companies have had success with a crypto strategy," the spokesperson said. "A number of our friends and supporters felt we should engage in that area as well. The board decided to start a conservative approach on this and test waters by buying some Bitcoin and Trump coin."

Unlike previous rallies, this one is expected to be driven by long-term investors seeking portfolio stability, rather than short-term speculation.
